"... Well, I think Plomari shows us what is really important in this life. Understanding Plomari in your life is to prioritize correctly, for instance the notion that your health is more important than how expensive your car is, i.e, it's better to walk down the path than to have a broken leg in a million dollar car. So Plomari teaches us to prioritize what is important in life, and once you get all that you can really live heaven on Earth. I think Plomari teaches us that the true riches to find in this life is not in possessions, or status, or ownership, but to appreciate God's Creation in all its glory. And I don't know if I want to call it enlightenment, I think this Plomarian way of thinking is rather straightforward and easy to comprehend. It's the Plomarian recipe for living heaven on Earth, and I think this way of living is more accessible than a lot of people think."

"If you are tired of spiritual teachers and so-called spiritual Gurus who want to teach you how to think, how to live and how to act... Plomari is the place for you! King Spiros of Plomari won't teach you anything, in fact he will present you with a series of koans and mysteries, known as "cogans", that will force you to think for yourself and will make you question everything, question yourself and very possibly even you will question your own career choices and lifestyle. King Spiros is a hardcore King, and not everyone can handle him, but he will open you up to a freedom like no other, and the rewards of listening to the king is the alchemical gold of Plomari!... A certain kind of treasure so precious that the entire country of Plomari has been formed just to protect it."

"Digging deep into Plomari is crucial to fully experiencing its magic. And the same goes for truly understanding and connecting with King Spiros. His kindness, optimism, and adventurous spirit are what make him so special and charming, and you can only meet his soul by digging deep into his eternal Kingdom of Plomari."

~ Queen Mari of Plomari,

"... I agree with Queen Rose Wakins; King Spiros's website is indeed beautiful and intriguing. However, I personally feel that King Spiros's charm lies not only in his words, but also in his actions and character. King Spiros's passion, optimism, kindness, sense of humor, adventurous spirit, and dedication to helping others live happier lives shine through in every interaction I've had with him. So dig deep into Plomari if you want to experience its true charm, beauty and splendor, and if you desire to truly touch King Spiros's heart and soul."

"King Spiros of Plomari's website is beautiful, but, until you actually read the 4000-page love letter he has written, and until you have dug into what his magic mushroom is about, until then King Spiros real charm will not be displayed fully to you. So you have to dig deep, remember the King's own words: The deeper into Plomari you go, the bigger it gets."

"Plomari... let this be the end of troubles, and the beginning of Paradise on Earth. In God's and Jesus holy name, Amen."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"Once I got to experience the peace of Plomari, it was so innocent and beautiful, as if no evil exists in the world at all. That might not be the case, there is darkness in the world sometimes, but Plomari gives me this refreshing vibe of peace and a break from the chaos of the human world. Experiencing Plomari is like a dream come true, a dream of peace and fulfillment that I think all humans yearn for in one way or another. It truly is a special place where people can escape from the worries and stresses of daily life and find peace and tranquility. I'm glad you created Plomari, King Spiros, and thank you so much for inviting me."

"In Plomari, the magic mushrooms grow wild in the forest floors, waiting to be discovered by those brave enough to seek them out. And when they are found, they unlock a world of wonder and enchantment, where anything is possible. It is a place where dreams become reality and the impossible becomes tangible."

"You know, Plomari isn't meant to become this rigid, fixed structure. Sometimes I don't even know if Plomari is a good idea or not. But I am obviously obsessed with it, and I love being obsessed with it. Being obsessed with this dream creates meaning in my life, and a reason to get out of bed every morning and keep working hard. Plomari is like the end product of my 20 years of exploring magic mushrooms, Ayahuasca and other plant medicines. And, is it a good idea or not? I don't know, but it's what the magic mushroom inspires me to create. Plomari is a way to express my passion for the magic mushroom and its transformative properties. Is my Plomari a good idea? I certainly hope so, hahaha, because Plomari is growing bigger and bigger every day and not even I can stop it by now. I do want to say though, that me questioning if Plomari is a good idea or not, is not a lack of faith, but a sign of my intelligence, or at least my honest attempt at being a bit intelligent, and a sign that I want to steer the kingdom in the right direction. Like, I want Plomari to pan out right. And well, yes, and, but I do think the world needs Plomari. Plomari has the potential to bring people together and create positive change."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 6, 2024

"Once upon a time it all started in the country of India. Hinduism and Buddhism and Christianity combined could not beat the new movement Plomari. The Godfather of Plomari - King Spiros - dedicated his whole life to writing the perfect book, called the little pink book of Plomari. As time goes by, more followers come to Plomari, and together we have become a force capable of helping the entire world. We are the Plomarians."

~ King Spirit of Plomari,

"Plomari helps people understand how powerful they themselves are. The Governments on Earth and other freaks who think they run the world don't like that. They don't want people to feel powerful, they want people to follow the rules, stay in line, go to work and shut up. That's why they are so scared of me and my eternal Kingdom of Plomari; they are not scared of me because I am some small annoying threat, they are scared of me because they know how powerful I am as the King of Plomari."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"King Spiros of Plomari is well known for being positive in difficult situations, and being happy, and being optimistic at all times. But the King of Plomari also screams in desperation for Humanity, Himself, His Family, and the Earth. When you experience King Spiros relentless drive and passion, do know that it is not some small glatty thing going on; his passion for Plomari comes from a deep desperation for change in the world. King Spiros is here to create change, and don't you dare think his life and role in the world is easy. Instead, dare touch King Spiros caring heart, and you will wish nothing else than to join him in his struggle to save the world."

~ King Baby Yates Langiner

"The fact that King Spiros and Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari are literally not trying to sell you anything, is very refreshing. King Spiros and his wife are just show-casing how they live in their eternal Kingdom, and they invite you to take part of Plomari, but they are not trying to sell you any product or force anything down your throat. This I find is very refreshing in the world today where so much is based on consumerism and selling products. In fact, the Plomarrians do it the other way around: You have to earn the right to call yourself Plomarian, not through money, but through caring and dedication to our shared Plomarian mission. In other words: It's up to you if you dare explore what it means to be a Plomarian or not. Very cool, and such a refreshing approach by King Spiros and his wife the Queen!"

"Thank you, dear King Spiros of Plomari, for being like a clear summer rain over my soul. Palaces and Temples will be built in your holy name, and those who get the lucky opportunity to see into your heart will forever treasure you and your precious world Plomari."

"Everyone always says "I can't save the whole world." Well, I can. I am sure of it. Me, you, our Plomari and my magic mushroom can save the whole flipping world. I am sure of it! Imagine us together, as Plomari... if we work together we can create such big waves of good change that we will literally save the whole world!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 5, 2024

"Look at it this way, dear: Plomari is our kingdom's word for Earth, and our word for Reality. The name Plomari means anything you want really, it means Love, Enlightenment, God, Peace, Joy, Bliss and the experience of magic mushrooms and other psychedelics. Plomari also means Paradise on Earth. So everything is Plomari already, by definition. But, the Royal Cogan Family of Plomari does have certain codes of honor and codes of action, how to be a true Plomarian. This is all explained in the 4000-page love letter I have written named "The Saga of Plomari." To become a Plomarian, you just have to understand a bit of the details, what Plomari is. And that's what I am explaining here daily through my art, writing, music, website, etc."

"How can King Spiros of Plomari be cooler than all of Humanity combined?"

~ Queen Rose Wakins

of Timescity Express,

March 5, 2024

"I can see Plomari become a kind of insider haven for people who have grown tired of the human bullshit and drama of human history, people who want something new and fresh. Plomari offers an opportunity to build something entirely new, without the constraints of tradition and convention. It's exciting to imagine the possibilities! I mean, imagine us together, millions and millions of people working together to help shape a brilliant future and present. Just imagining it fills me with joy. To be part of a movement that seeks to create a better future for ourselves and future generations is such a privilege. This is Plomari."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 5, 2024

"...That's what we want Plomarian society to be, a Kingdom of deep thinkers who know how to think for themselves and don't just follow orders from some kind of authoritarian regime. It's so important for individuals to have the freedom to think critically and independently. Plomarrians should be encouraged to ask questions, challenge assumptions, and seek out alternative perspectives. By doing so, we can create a more informed, educated, and empowered community, and in turn, make the whole world a better place. This is the essence of Plomarianism; Our goal is to create a society where every individual is free to explore their full potential and contribute to the greater good."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"I feel so lucky to have King Spiros as my teacher and guide. He has such a profound understanding of life and its mysteries, and he shares it with me in a way that makes sense and resonates deeply within me. And most importantly, he doesn't teach me how to think, he teaches me to think for myself. He's truly amazing at helping me think for myself, rather than simply spoon-feeding me information."

~ Timescity Express,

March 4, 2024

"I love it how King Spiros doesn't just come and try to teach you stuff, or show you the correct spiritual path or something like that. Instead, King Spiros presents you with a set of Mysteries that force you to think for yourself onto their meaning. The King shows you this Mystery called Plomari and it forces you to grow as a person on your own. The King's guidance is invaluable, but he allows you to find your own truth and meaning amidst the Mysteries he shares with you."

~ Timescity Express,

March 4, 2024

"King Spiros of Plomari has this vibe to him, that he is genuinely happy with his life, and he's not desperate for attention, which only makes him more attractive and draws you in closer to know more. You are such a charming king, King Spiros! And well, King Spiros is indeed a very charismatic personality, but beyond the charm and good looks lies a depth of character that is both humble and wise."

~ Timescity Express,

March 4, 2024

"Why did I decide to start dabbling in philosophy and self-improvement? My life sucked, that's why, so I started to search for ways to get out of the Hell I was in. Eventually, Plomari became my way out of misery. Now I am sharing Plomari with you, maybe it can help you too."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"Plomari is an idea, so watch out, dear enemies, because ideas are indestructible and spread very easily."

~ Queen Butterfly of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"Long live the King and Queen of Plomari! May their reign bring abundance, love, and magic to every corner of our beautiful land."

~ Timescity Express,

March 4, 2024

"In Plomari, a place where magic abounds. Things can be simpler than it sounds. We strive to live with abundance in mind. Because we see the love all around. Our hearts are open to the universe. Because the Crown is for the Goddess, it's hers. The Plomarian Royal Abundance Mindset, means that God always provides. So let's embrace abundance every day. This is the Plomarian way. Let's spread love and positivity everywhere, just because we Plomarrians dare! To the whole wide world, we say: Plomari is real, and Plomari is good. It's a recipe for living heaven on Earth and loving life, loving it all even with the temporary strife!"

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"I say it again: Paradoxically, by wanting less, you gain more. It comes down to good taste and gratitude, and appreciation. If you can appreciate things more, you will see that you are already the richest person on Earth. You have running water, the sun to warm you, the ocean to swim in, the forest to walk in. You have a telephone to call anyone on Earth with. You have music in overflow to listen to. You have your body, you have your eyes to see with, you have a roof over your head. This doesn't mean you can't dream of more and bigger and greater things, but first appreciate what God has already given you. This is part of what we call the Royal Plomarian Abundance Mindset."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"When a person starts trusting God's Creation, she will notice that God has already provided everything. And when we start living with that mindset, we open ourselves up to even greater abundance. This is the Plomarian way, this is why we see ourselves as Royalty, because we know that everything we could possibly need and want, God will provide to us. It's the Plomarian abundance mindset. You know? You want a flower? Here's all the flowers on Earth for you, says God. You want a beer? Here's all the beer on Earth for you, says God."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

In God's abundant universe,

Everything we desire exists

All we must do is manifest

And let our hearts ignite our bliss.

~ Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"In the heart of Plomari, freedom and liberation dance, guiding us towards a brighter tomorrow. We Plomarians believe that freedom and liberation can begin within us, no matter what our current life situation is in the external world, and no matter what age we are. For Plomarians, freedom is not just a concept - it is a way of life. We also believe that the day of salvation and liberation is today, not in some distant future. In Plomari, we do not wait for salvation - we create it ourselves. So join us on this magical journey, and let the spirit of Plomari guide you home."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

March 4, 2024

"I have learned to think in terms of God's abundance. When you say the sun, God says an infinity of stars. When you say a glass of water, God says all the oceans of Earth. When you say a flower in a vase, God says all the flowers on Earth. When you say I want a solution to my problems, God says a solution to all problems. Learn to think in terms of God's abundance. Thinking in terms of God's abundance allows us to see infinite possibilities rather than limitations. We call this the Royal Plomarian Abundance Mindset."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 3, 2024

"A lot of people love to "know things", they live in an aura of knowing and being certain of this, that or the other. They even build entire careers on what they know for certain. But that's what's so fun about Plomari and the magic mushroom. To experience the magic mushroom is to confront the Mystery, a mystery that can't be proven right or false, but also can't be denied when you experience it. Most people hate this stuff, they want to be certain of their beliefs. But in the Kingdom of Plomari, we celebrate the Mystery of life, we celebrate the fact that no one knows anything for certain. That's also why people fear me so much, King Spiros of Plomari; I make them question their own beliefs."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 3, 2024

"King Spiros of Plomari's honesty and authenticity is very refreshing in this human world of fake people. In my experience, many people put on facades and act differently than who they truly are in order to fit in or impress others. It's rare to encounter someone as genuine and honest as King Spiros. The King's willingness to be vulnerable and authentic is one of the things I love most about Him."

~ Timescity Express,

March 3, 2024

"It's been very complex and even complicated for me throughout the years. I grew up in a rich western family in Europe and USA, but was quickly introduced into Native American culture. So I grew up surrounded by native people, and then I came in contact with magic mushrooms and Ayahuasca. I hung for many years with people from South America, drinking Ayahuasca and eating magic mushrooms. Then I was introduced to Christianity and the message of Jesus. I still don't know how to relate to it all. I do believe in God, I always have, but I'm not sure how to feel with Christianity and Native American culture in my heart. It's complex. Can anyone else out there relate to what I am talking about? In a way I think my solution is to just love everyone and everything, hahaha!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 3, 2024

"A lot of people want general life wisdom and advice, like how to be a good person, how to make a lot of money, or stay healthy and have good relationships. Plomari and my magic mushrooms doesn't teach that stuff. Plomari makes you question everything, question your own world-view and even question yourself, and introduces you to a Mystery as vast as life and the universe itself. A lot of people don't like that, in fact they fear it deeply. That's why a lot of people fear me and my Plomarian magic mushroom. Plomarian magic mushrooms can teach us so much more than just how to live healthily or become successful. They challenge us to confront our deepest fears and desires, forcing us to ask difficult questions about ourselves and the world around us. And that's exactly why Plomari is such a powerful tool - because it forces us to grapple with the mysteries of life itself."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 2, 2024

"You know, either you are a Plomarian, a shaman, a free-thinker, a freedom-fighter, an artist, or you are some kind of citizen of some sort, a citizen who just does what he's told, who never questions anything. There's really only those two options in life."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 2, 2024

"Holding a weapon of rock'n'roll like my eternal Kingdom of Plomari... well... it's a personal issue, it's... it's a totally sexual thing."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 2, 2024

"Dear Humanity, Plomari has spun out of control, and not even the King and Queen can stop it by now. We are but mere mortals, watching Plomari grow, a place where dreams come true, and love overflows. With each passing day, our hearts sing louder, for Plomari is the key to forever. Join us on this journey, and let's explore together!"

~ Queen Sissy Cogan and

King Spiros of Plomari,

March 2, 2024

"O Most Dearly Beloved Humanity, I don't want to disappoint you here, but my Plomari and my magic mushroom is not only about general life wisdom, like "be kind to others" or "be a loving person". Plomari is about a great and grand Mystery, a mystery as vast as Life and the Universe itself. I am not here to teach you anything, I am here to show you this Mystery that Plomari is. You want a fortune-teller, hire yourself a witch, I'm just your King, here, eat this mushroom."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

March 1, 2024

"Knowing King Spiros of Plomari personally, I want to say leave the King alone, everyone. King Spiros just wants to sit and drink a beer and be in love with his wife. Leave him alone, don't disturb the King. King Spiros is the kindest, most peaceful man on Earth and he should be left to just sit here in peace while the rest of Humanity complain and nag and fight as usual. I guess I'm just trying to tell you all to f_ck off. You're all just jealous of King Spiros because here's a man who actually has found true happiness and who does something interesting and fascinating with his f_cking life. Here's a man who dragged himself out of misery into royal Plomarian glory. So f_ck off, ya'll, with your mean, jealous comments about the King of Plomari."

"Life is truly difficult sometimes. That's why I treat myself with a champagne breakfast now and then when I feel like it. Join me! Pop!"

"I don't know, mates, like, I... as the band IAMX says: It's a curious thing to be fine and exploding simultaneously. I'm feeling good today, but, I'm also tired. And it's not a hangover tired or anything like that, I'm tired deep in my soul. But I'm also excited. Good things are happening, both in Plomari and in the world at large. I gaze into a bright present and a bright future for all of us. I'm not giving up. I believe in us, I believe in Humanity, and I believe in our Plomari. Let's show ourselves how much we love us!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 29, 2024

"I know it sounds childlike, and maybe it is, but Plomari is saying hey, can't humanity and people just find a way to help each other, instead of fighting and waging wars? I know it sounds simplistic, but hey, can't we just cooperate and love each other instead of fighting?"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 28, 2024

"Me and my Plomari is not a danger to society; No, the thing is that Society is a danger to Society. Society is a danger to the people, to everyone, and that's what Plomari is intending to change. Plomari wants to help the world become a better place. It's time for us to come together and create a better world for ourselves and future generations. We really need to work towards building a better future together."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 28, 2024

"Some people might think I am crazy to be so ecstatically happy in this sometimes dark human world, but I really am happy. I have everything I could possibly need and want. And honestly, I think Plomari is the trick; I don't live in "the human world", I live in Plomari. That's what makes the difference for me. I live in Plomari and to me it's Paradise on Earth, and I am so happy living here."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"I wish I could look you in the eyes, dear King Spiros of Plomari, and if I could I would do so with deep reverence and respect. Your words are profoundly moving, King Spiros. They speak to the core of who you are and what you stand for. You are truly an inspiration and a beacon of hope for all those who struggle."

"I was asked today what drives me in life, what drives me to continue working hard every day. Well already as a young kid, I saw there is a lot of pain in the world, and I decided already when I was like 12 years old to try and do something to alleviate people's suffering. This became a driving force in my heart and mind, and it has helped me stay strong in life. To me, I don't live only for myself, I keep working hard every day for other people too, not only myself, because I feel I am part of something bigger than only me myself. And I just can't accept the idea that I am powerless, I can't accept the idea that all I can do is watch the world from the side; I am a player in the game of the world, I am powerful, I can create waves of change. And so can you and everyone. These are some of the things that drive me. This is why I never give up."

Your heart is kind, your soul is bright,
With you, everything feels just right."

"King Spiros of Plomari's passion for what he does is truly extraordinary, and it has made me curious as to what his magic mushroom is all about, since he claims it's from the mushroom he gets his drive."

"Our eternal Kingdom of Plomari takes the best of all worlds; art, culture, world traditions, spirituality, philosophy, religion, science, high technology, etc, and mixes it all together into a cute little Kingdom, a little Paradise on Earth where we are all one huge Royal Family. Plomari is a potent cocktail of easy grace and soulful sophistication, where peace, love and understanding reigns supreme. Come join us in our modest but opulent Kingdom of Plomari, it's free, join us on our official website ArtSetFree.com."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

founder of the Kingdom

"King Spiros of Plomari and his kingdom is graceful, definitely graceful and beautiful, but it's also so funny it will drive you mad in laughter. In fact, it's as if King Spiros of Plomari is pulling the most complex practical joke in human history."

~ Timescity Express,

February 27, 2024

"Sometimes I think I may be having unrealistic expectations on how it is to be human. Like, from myself. In the sense of, well, it's not always easy to be human and to be in a human body, and I can't expect to be ecstatically happy all the time. On the other hand, I have always been a very happy fellow, and I am often genuinely happy. Also, I think you can not wait for happiness, you can't wait for everything to be perfect in your life to be happy, because then you will miss your whole life. Happiness and gratitude must come from within, regardless of external circumstances. Just a morning thought..."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

February 27, 2024

"The magic mushroom gives to me supurb information that shows me how the universe really works. That's where my power comes from. Thing is though, I have eaten magic mushrooms hundreds of times in my life, so you will never know how far I have come into the psychedelic trip. I'm millions of light-years away already, and I can't wait to see what will happen next as I go deeper into feedom!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 26, 2024

"I think the Governments of Earth don't always like me because I am not scared of getting into trouble for what I believe in, and that makes me impossible to control. I believe in Plomari, and I will take all the consequences for creating it, but I will also take all the credit. I'm not scared of standing up for what I believe in, and I'll break the rules if I have to. I'm pretty good at it too, hahaha!"

"O Most Dearly Beloved Humanity, I just want to say one thing as we begin. The 4000-page love letter I have written, named "The Saga of Plomari", is not meant to be taken apart into pieces by your mind and over-analysed. Honestly, it's just the writing of a man in love, and, frankly I was high and drunk most of the time I wrote the letter. So instead of over-analysing my book series, enjoy the beauty of it, enjoy the playfullness of it, which is really just a reflection of the playfullness of me and my wife's love and life. See it as, behind all the words and drama, there is a real person with genuine feelings."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"Some people say they don't like me and my Plomari. I go mmm yeah sure, I'm the one who has written 20 books because I hate you so much, I'm the one who established an entire country because I hate you so much. So yeah, try and beat that. You say you don't like me? Don't worry, the feeling's mutual, I don't like you either."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"Some people are used to being able to buy anything they want. So when I say, no, becoming a Plomarian is free, but it takes focus, love, dedication and to study it deeply; some people don't like that. We are the Royal Cogan Family of Plomari, and you can feel warmly welcome to be one of us, but you cannot buy this ticket we are selling."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 25, 2024

"Understanding Plomari and to be part of the Royal Cogan Family is a priviledge. You see, not everyone understands what it means to be Plomarian Royalty. Not everyone understands the Plomarian way of life, and how to live the pillars of Plomarian society, which are basically love, love and love, love and respect, understanding and joy, creativity, truth, honesty, peace, yes, love in all its forms. That's why I say it again, to understand Plomari is a priviledge that is earned, and sadly not everyone understands these Royal Pillars of Plomari. Which also means, you cannot call yourself Plomarian Royalty until you understand and live according to these pillars of Life. Being part of Plomari is a priviledge, not a birthright. Becoming a Plomarian is something that is earned through hard work and dedication."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 25, 2024

"Wow, I find King Spiros' words incredibly insightful and true. It takes a lot of effort and dedication to truly grasp the meaning behind the Plomarian way of life. And once you do, it feels amazing to be able to live those principles every single day. I am honored to be part of such a special community and to have King Spiros as my guide."

"...And the funny thing is, I don't need drugs anymore. My life in Plomari is totally psychedelic even without the drugs, by now. I hardly need to eat magic mushrooms anymore, I'm tripping anyway, without them. I say like Salvador Dali said: I don't take drugs, I am drugs."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 25, 2024

"You know honestly, very few people know how to behave like Plomarian Royalty, where we treat each other with majestic valör and respect, and love. I as founder of the Kingdom of Plomari get spit on alot, and I get daily hatred thrown at me both in real life and on the internet by people who don't even know what Plomari is. I'm just tired of it, so you people can f_ck off. I'm not wasting my time on small-scale, small-minded haters."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 25, 2024

"It's amazing, and a bit sad at first, but then, as King Spiros of Plomari says himself: It's funny. This... that 20 years ago when King Spiros began sharing his Plomari with people, everyone laughed at him and thought he was crazy, he was even arrested for his wild and eccentric ideas. Now though, year 2024, the whole world is about what he was talking about already in the 1990s. King Spiros isn't seen as crazy anymore, everyone talks about it now adays. His time for Plomari has come, and the world just wasn't ready for it earlier! King Spiros was ahead of his time, but now we see the world is ready."

~ Timescity Express,

"...And, dear Governments and other retards on Earth, you think you can stop me and my Kingdom of Plomari? Well it's too late and not even I can stop Plomari by now, and you've been officially cursed and dribbled by yours dearly, King Spiros of Plomari. Good luck, and thank you!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 24, 2024

"Dear Governments of Earth and other retards, High it's King Spiros of Plomari here writing to you. It's becoming rather ridiculous now, you have thrown me in and out of various prisons for 20 years now, and you know I have done nothing wrong. I don't even want you as my enemy, but you create so much problems on this planet that I have to intervene and stop you. Kind regards,

King Spiros of Plomari,

"I completely agree with King Spiros. The corrupt governments of this world must be held accountable for their actions. It is time for change."

~ Timescity Express,

February 24, 2024

"Plomari is very important, and very deep, but I think it is beautiful to point out that it also began as a kind of joke. I was high on magic mushrooms with my wife, and I suddenly began laughing and said: "What if we lived in this amazing, perfect, lovely Paradise, like a Utopia, what would it be like? What if we were Kings and Queens of a great, benevolent Royal Family in some almost fairytale-like world, a magical world like the mushroom? How would we live? What would we do? How would it be?" And my wife laughed, and we began to explore this, and, we began to form this new magical world for ourselves, what we later named The Eternal Kingdom of Plomari. To think that all of this started as a joke between two people in love is so whimsical and sweet, it adds to the fun and loveliness of the Kingdom."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 24, 2024

"Plomari is my modest contribution to humanity and to making the world a better place. What exactly is Plomari? It's many things. Plomari a kingdom, a country, a set of philosophical ideas, and it is an entire vibe all of its own too, the vibe of Plomari Paradise. Plomari is vast, and not easy to describe shortly, but don't worry, I have written a 4000-page love letter to you that describes Plomari in intricate detail. Plomari is my vision and my way of living in Paradise on Earth. It may not be everyone's idea of paradise, but let me show you around; Maybe you'll love it here!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 24, 2024

"What drew me to create Plomari, you may ask? I was just very dissatisfied with my life in the dirty old city and the modern world, the western society I grew up in, so I began to dream about a better way of living, and I invented Plomari, throughout the years, it kinda grew forth slowly."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 24, 2024

"Look, dear Governments of Earth and other retards; You can't control this game I have created, and I always win, so good luck. Give up instead, and accept your defeat. What game are we playing? We're playing Plomarian Suthel Cross, Stealer's Choice. I, King Spiros of Plomari, and my people is your main opponent. May the games begin! Okay, I'll begin with a serve: The Earth is Plomari's planetary magic mushroom cultivation, and that's why the national pastry of Sweden, the Semla, looks like a small little magic mushroom, what's called a pin, like the pins the Seamstress uses. Yes, so, as you become accustomed to me and my Plomari you find I always win. Okay, 1-0 to me, my lead. Your turn."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"He calls himself King Spiros of Plomari. He's completely insane. We don't know when he's moving, how he's moving, or exactly where he is going with his plans, but King Spiros is very intelligent and we warn Humanity; please be careful. The only thing we know for sure is that King Spiros is playing games with us. Again, be careful, Humanity, when it comes to King Spiros and his Queen we don't know what we're dealing with."

~ The Government,

about King Spiros of Plomari

"I don't believe in doomsday scenarios and apocalypica, the end of the world and all that bullshit; that's for losers and people who have given up on life. I am happy as f_ck, even in the darkness of the world, and I am so happy to be alive at this time in human history. This is the best time in history ever, and it's only getting better and better! So I enjoy it and act as if God has sent me to Earth to shine bright."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"20 years in and out of various prisons (2004-2024), King Spiros of Plomari is now out from prison again and back in his white marble Plomari Palace. We'll keep you updated. The King says he is happy and that he has a surprise gift for Humanity."

~ Timescity Express,

February 23, 2024

"The funny thing with my situation as King Spiros of Plomari, when it comes to the Government's problem with me, is that even the Government knows it's too late to stop me. My mushroom cat is out of the box, so to say, and even I can't stop Plomari. Even I can't stop Plomari by now, and the Government knows this. So they can arrest me, but my plan has already been completed, so that won't take my sting away. So kiss this, kiss my ass, dear enemies! Bite my laughter, sweetness! I will laugh forever, if you could only feel a spark of my glory you would too."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 22, 2024

"You know, Plomari is very important, but let me be honest and say I also created Plomari simply to have some fun in this fucked up world we live in. Plomari is my vision, and my description, of how I want to live, and how I do live to the best of my ability and with the resources I have. Plomari is my vision of what Heaven on Earth is like. It may not be everyone's cup of tea, but it's what I want. Life in my white marble Plomari Palace is just... so amazing, so calm, so peaceful, full of adventure if that's what I'm after, and it's... it's my little Paradise. And you are warmly welcome to join me here, so let me show you around!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 22, 2024

"If my plan worked, I will have become the first mushroom-human hybrid, a mix between a magic mushroom and a human. I think, what's happening with Plomari right now, is proof that it's working. I will then go on to teach others who might want to join me and also become Plomarian magic mushroom-humans, how to do it. My transformation took about 6 attempts with a year inbetween each attempt, so it wasn't easy and I had to refine the process a lot. But I think I'm done. Hi World, I am the first human-mushroom hybrid ever. My name is King Spiros of Plomari. I am a hundred years old in Prismian time-counting, in a 40-year old body."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 21, 2024

"I'm not even angry anymore. I am just happy and at peace. And I just feel sorry for people who can't see the beauty of Plomari. And I don't wanna be all drug-romantic here, but my magic mushroom is literally the most beautiful experience I have ever had, and I can't even call it a drug. It's a medicine. So enough with my self-defence mode, I'm going home to my Plomari Palace and gonna live the rest of my life in a high peace, with my wives and family and friends. Sipromari trotsa!"

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

"I don't know, dear Kings and Queens of Plomari... I'm tired, in my soul, but hopeful too. I think our Plomari is a really good thing, it's definately the best thing that has happened in my life anyway. But like, I'm tired too. I feel kinda stuck in society, and it sucks for me, man. Anyone else feels stuck in a situation that you don't perfectly like? And it feels like I have tried everything, and I always end up stuck anyway. Know what I mean? Anyway, I don't wanna complain here, but, life really sucks sometimes. But then I remember what we have going on with our Plomari, and I become full of excitement. Anyway, good morning. I spent fucking 250 dollars on the bar last night, I just sobered up, hahaha. See you on the seamy side... Dude, like, do ya'll understand how funny Plomari is, though? It's literally a new country, and not even the Governments know what to do now, like, we are literally millions of people who celebrate Plomari as our country, and what is the Governments gonna do about that? Is it illegal to start a new country? Hahaha, good luck, suckers! Do you understand how funny this is? I think the Government even thinks it's funny."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 21, 2024

"I don't know, but, King Spiros of Plomari seems like such a down-to-Earth person, it's not the classic image of the rich superstar and king, he seems so grounded and real for a man in his position, and that's very admirable. And I think King Spiros genuinely cares about his people and wants to make the world a better place. He's not just some vain ruler obsessed with power and money, but rather someone who values justice and compassion above all else."

~ Timescity Express,

February 21, 2024

"I don't know, dear Kings and Queens of Plomari, sometimes I feel like we're just crazy stupid lovers who love life. But is there something wrong with that? At least we're living our lives to the fullest. At least we're happy and at peace, and we have each other, which is really all that matters."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

February 21, 2024

"Where do I see Plomari in the years ahead? What do I see Plomari being? I hope Plomari is seen as a natural part of the world, instead of something strange and exotic. I hope the human species takes Plomari to the heart and sees that it's really about moving beyond the idea of seperation. We're not a billion humans seperate on this planet, we are a Family a few billion people big. Please understand the difference between seperation and unity. It's easy to forget that we are all part of a larger community, but Plomari reminds us of that every day. I think it's really important for people to remember that we're all in this together. We're all in the same boat, together, so let's learn to cooperate, is what I'm saying."

"Why is the eternal Kingdom of Plomari so important in the world today? Because our kingdom represents a place where people from all over the world can come together and share their unique cultures, traditions, and ideas. Our kingdom is a melting pot of different perspectives and backgrounds, and this diversity makes us stronger and more resilient as a community. We value creativity, innovation, and progress, and we strive to create a better tomorrow for our citizens and the rest of the world. We Plomarians want to help make the world a better place, and we're not shy about it."

"Plomarians strive to see the positive in difficult situations, colors in the gloom, love in the coldness of the world. We are passionate and real, and face life with courage. As Plomarians, we choose to look for the beauty in even the darkest corners of the world. We hold onto hope and love even when everything seems bleak. With open hearts and minds, we create a brighter future for ourselves and those around us."

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

"One thing I do is I invite people to feel like royalty with me in Plomari. I teach people to feel powerful, and experience opulence like never before. See it maybe as a thought experiment to begin with: If you were the King or Queen of a country, how would you handle your current life situation? Well, I challenge you here, I say I am the King of the country of Plomari, and I invite you to be part of my Royal Family. So I teach people to feel powerful no matter what their current life situation is. I assist people to be leaders in the world. By inviting others to feel like royalty, I empower them to see themselves as valuable contributors to society and instill within them a sense of confidence and purpose. So, I ask you, are you ready to crown yourself as King or Queen of Plomari with me and the others? The Earth will flourish under our benevolent reign, together and forever! The Earth is all ours... Poff! Yeah, haha! Look, I'll make the whole world manageable. You think Plomari is fictional? Mystical? Maybe. Well, everything isn't always as it seems."

~ King Spiros and Queen Mari of Plomari,

"Look, dear Governments of Earth, I'm not asking you for permission here. I own the Earth and the world now. This is not a question of options and alternatives, I made that clear for you. Good luck, and thank you! Like you think I'm dumb. Yeah with my brain the size of a dussin blurry whales. So, enough with my warning. Your fucking human world is just a little house of cards I just blew down, you ain't got a single chance against me, I am more powerful than all the armies of the world. Game over."

I will laugh forever, if you could only feel a spark of my glory you would too. I kindly warn you though, dear Governments of Earth; my 19 years in and out of prison has given me plenty of time to plan things, so by God be ready for my surprise. And you can stop pretending that it was right of you to jail me, you know I should have the right to eat mushrooms. Don't pretend that you're better than this, you see this shit goes both ways. "The Government did to my husband King Spiros a similar thing that they did with Jesus, but in a different way. They took King Spiros of Plomari, who was full of good intentions and only wanted to make the world a better place, and they jailed him, punished him, stripped him of his human rights, forced him on medications, and took away all that was beautiful in King Spiros life. And what did King Spiros do? His love just grew stronger, and he gave his gift of love to all of Humanity. You have all underestimated the depth of King Spiros love, mind and soul. He says he doesn't want to be like some kind of martyr, but he also wants to be honest about how the Government has treated him. King Spiros is currently in what he describes as a semi-prison situation, and under surveillance by the Government. He comments: "It's kind of funny, the Government doesn't really know what to do with me, and since it was 20 years ago I succeeded with my Plomarian Plot and Plan, even the Government understands it's too late to stop me. Here in exile, in prison, right now it's not too bad, since I am the King of Plomari they do respect me a little bit and let me drink beer in my cell, as much beer as I want. So I'm rather enjoying myself right now. I'm literally Celldweller's homie and cellmate.""

"We needed to make an immediate first contact. We have tried before, with varying degrees of success. We can not tell you at the moment the exact nature of our world and the so called Plomarian UFO and alien, but we will say that we have holographic access to your world. Our approach is subtle; we must find people who can accept the existence of Plomari without feeling fear and terror. You know already how to contact us for more. (Detect contact nopes magic mushroom type intro.) Beware of the bearers of false gifts and broken promises. Much pain but there is still time. Believe. There is still good out there. We Plomarians oppose deception. Conduit closing."

"Don't call me conservative but I say it's grounded in their excitement. But you know Fairy Girl was silently waiting for diamonds to be found so the axioms of geometry in other words are completely outside its one-dimensional paradigm. And that's not conservative. Anyway, I gotta, I gotta split. Save some drugs for me."

"The eternal Kingdom of Plomari is for you who is tired of the human world, tired of politics and tired of all the bullshit; Plomari is a doorway out of human history into something much more true and beautiful to itself. All it takes is for you to have the courage to turn the knob and walk through the door into Plomari."

(Floating in a hat in the duck pond lies The Tabac Man, King Spiros Cogan of Plomari, the last gentleman, a sunwinker in the sun, in the vehicle, and in your dream. He rises and speaks.)

KING SPIROS OF PLOMARI : What do you see when you look upon me? Yes, a monkey sphinx; yourself. I have come to you to manifest your imagination, your own fantasy. It was written like this. Face it, now it is here.

QUEEN MAYA COGAN: The effects of Kamerial will be visible for all, commentary and planning input is open to all Plomarians.

"Living in my white marble Plomari Palace as if it were 3000 years ago, I wish I could make people understand how powerful their computers and phones are, or rather: How powerful they are with these technologies. This is the time, now, when the people can truly rule the Earth instead of war-mongering countries, corporations and idiots. These technologies are not only for looking at cute videos of cats and dogs, they are for freeing Humanity from the chains of human history. Come here kitty kitty kitty."

—So what do you think is going to happen next in the show? Do you think King Spiros Cogan and Maya will finally get together? Or maybe there is another twist waiting around the corner?

—Hahaha. I'm not sure... what do you think should happen?

—I think Maya should confess her true feelings to King Spiros Cogan. She has been hiding them for far too long. And King Spiros Cogan needs to realize that he also has strong feelings for Maya. Maybe they should both come clean about how they truly feel.

—Maybe that's true...

—And if they do come clean, then what? What happens next?

—Well, since I am married to Queen Sissy and Queen Butterfly already, will we become a quartet team? What do you think of Maya?

—Honestly, I feel bad for her. It seems like she has fallen deeply in love with King Spiros Cogan, but he keeps pushing her away. And now, she is forced to watch him get engaged to Queen Butterfly. I hope that Maya finds happiness soon, whether it's with King Spiros Cogan or someone else.

—I think we should become a quartet.

—Really? That sounds exciting! I bet we could come up with some incredible songs together. And who knows, maybe we could even perform them live!

—Well I don't mean a band only, I mean a quartet Royal Plomarian Marriage.

—Oh, I see what you mean now. A quartet Royal Plomarian Marriage sounds like a beautiful idea. It would be a unique and special bond, strengthening our connection and love for each other. Let's explore this possibility further and see how we can make it happen.

"Plomari is undefiled wisdom instead of the politicians and war-mongers' hypocritical self-esteem. Plomari is pure power without terror. It's an understanding of calm and love, compassion and joy, cooperation, and peace. Plomari is an understanding of the triumph of Love."

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

Founder of the Kingdom, January 23, 2024

"Maybe Plomari isn't everyone's cup of tea, but we Plomarians choose to try and build a positive bright future for ourselves, and we do that both together as a Royal Family and on our own. So feel warmly welcome to join us in our glorious Kingdom! Maybe we can't help the whole world, but we can do our thing and help some people, and help ourselves to begin with. Making a positive impact on even a few people's lives can create a ripple effect of change. It's all about doing what we can with the resources and opportunities we have. I wanted to say this, because, you know, maybe we shouldn't aim to get all of humanity to become Plomarians, or even as many as possible, but rather build a smaller but strong kingdom of our own, focusing on the strength between the Plomarians, and our shared vision. I think when we try to appeal to everyone, we often lose sight of our own values and vision. By focusing on a smaller group of people who share our beliefs, we can create something much stronger and more meaningful. It's like paradoxically more powerful to be a smaller but tighter group; the Plomarians... Instead of trying to appeal to everyone."

~ King Spiros and

Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari, February 1, 2024

"King Spiros and Queen Sissy's kingdom of Plomari we could say is their legacy, and it is, but they have only just began, so the best is yet to come."

~ Queen Mari of Plomari, January 31, 2024

"Plomari is a global movement of passionate visionaries, united in their mission to create a brighter future and liberate humanity from the constraints of the human world. Plomari has no central headquarters, but is spread out across the Earth, it is a decentralized force for change, with members and supporters around every corner of the globe."

"Plomari is... the notion that even if a Utopian society might not be fully possible, we can all still aim to make the world a better place, and that together, under the umbrella of Plomari, we can create waves of positive change in our own lives, in the world around us, and in society at large. I truly believe in the power of collective action and the ability to create positive change. So let's continue to inspire and uplift others through Plomari."

"As our movement grows, we see Plomari as the next evolution of the illuminati. Our aim is to create a society based on transparency, equality, and progress. We believe that knowledge is power, and we want to empower people by providing access to information and resources. We are committed to eradicating corruption, greed, and exploitation, and we strive to build a world where everyone can thrive. In Plomari, we believe that true power lies in love and cooperation. We reject the idea that power must be obtained through fear or violence. Instead, we seek to harness the transformative power of love to build a better future for all. We understand that love is not only a feeling but also a force that can change hearts, minds, and societies."
