King Spiros of Plomari is a shaman, but maybe not a traditional one. He has travelled the world for years and picked up wisdom from very many parts of the world. Therefore his methods may be extra spicy and unique. But for those who dare explore the King's work, they will find the fruit of Plomari Paradise.

King Spiros, ruler of Plomari,
With wisdom and strength, he leads with glory.
In his eyes, a kingdom's tale,
In his heart, love will prevail.

And what is King Spiros of Plomari doing? He's making gifts for you... And he will say blibidi-blibidi-blibidi-blip, and he presents to you gifts from his Royal Plomarian Treasury. Gifts... like Fabergé eggs from space, whipped cream pastries that look like mushrooms, and music like you have never heard before, gifts so precious, jewels so valuable that they are guarded by the fiercest of Dragons. King Spiros gifts to you will stand your hair on end, they will give you what he calls "the luxury-chills" ...when you see just what he sees... And when you receive his gifts, and when you see what he sees, then tenderly watch it change and just let it be... It's yours now, treat it with utmost care, as if you are holding a little pink egg in the palm of your hand. Whatever you think you have seen and experienced thus far in life, nothing can ever prepare you for your meeting with my husband King Spiros of Plomari.

~ With tears running down my face, yours dearly,
Queen Cecilia "Butterfly" Cogan, proud wife of the King of Plomari

King Spiros, my love so true,
A ruler strong, with a heart so blue.
In Plomari's kingdom, you stand tall,
Bringing love and magic to one and all.
With mushrooms as your guiding light,
You lead with grace, shining bright.
A warrior for justice, fierce and bold,
Your spirit shines, never grows old.
In your eyes, I see the stars,
A love that reaches near and far.
Together we'll conquer any strife,
Creating a world full of love and life.
So here's to you, my King Spiros dear,
With you by my side, I have no fear.
Forever we'll reign, hand in hand,
In our eternal kingdom, where dreams expand.

Welcome to the eternal Kingdom of Plomari, a world of love and magic. Together, we will break free from the constraints of the human world and create our own paradise. Join us in this journey of freedom and let the Plomarian Lovebomb bless us all. Long live the King and his vision for a better world!

Understanding the Kingdom of Plomari is a journey of self-discovery and exploration. It requires an open mind and a willingness to learn. Plomari is a place where individuals can express themselves freely and connect with like-minded individuals who share similar values. It is a community that prioritizes personal growth, creativity, and positive energy. At its core, the Kingdom of Plomari is about empowering people to live their best lives. We believe that everyone has the potential to achieve greatness and make a difference in the world. Plomari provides a platform for individuals to share their ideas, collaborate with others, and make meaningful connections.

We Plomarians strive to be a source of inspiration and hope for others. And while some may find it challenging to accept our ideas, we remain steadfast in our commitment to creating a better future. Our kingdom will continue to shine brightly, and we welcome all who wish to join us in our quest for revolutionary change.

Plomari represents a new era, a break from traditional ways of living, and an opportunity to create something better. It is a chance for individuals to come together and work towards a common goal, one that prioritizes personal growth, community building, and environmental sustainability. Plomari is a doorway into a future where we can thrive together, free from the constraints of our human history past.

~ King Spiros of Plomari, 2024

Welcome home to our eternal Queendom of Plomari

Meet us on ArtSetFree.com

O Most Dearly Beloved Humanity, this is where it starts... As I make it to your Heart, blow by blow... I've been waiting for so long, so long to show you... Don't you know what I can do...?

So, this one goes out to everyone on Earth...

Thank you for joining me in my eternal Kingdom of Plomari, and brace yourself for a hell of a ride, on your way to becoming a royal Plomarian magician! I hereby give Plomari to Humanity as a gift of love. And as we say here in the kingdom: Once you have Plomari, you need nothing else.

My life as King of Plomari is a song, and my song begs to you: Break free!

My eternal Kingdom of Plomari is a very special world, and I'll show it just for you, if your love is true...

Think I'm tough and hardcore, O yes I am, but you did bump into Love in a Paradise did you not?

Yes give up now, dear enemies, Plomari is forever and there's nothing you can do about it.

People hating and nagging every day, O, we are eternal immortal forever, maybe it's Love, ah!

May the blessing of the Plomarian Lovebomb Almighty, from the fellowship of the Royal Cogan Family of Plomari, descend upon us all, this day, and forever more.

We Plomarians rise as the enemy against the lunacy of the human world. Long live the King! My curse on the human world will never be undone! The fortification of Plomari in the stream of time will never be gone!

We Plomarians interrupt the nightmare of human history with our freedom-loving ways, and invite you all, Dear Humanity, to join us in our Plomari Paradise!

We've been through days of thunder. Some people said we don't belong. They try to pull us under, but here we stand together and we're millions strong. And this time, with what we got, we're quite prepared to take our chances and take over the whole motherfucking world.

And to you, Dear Governments of Earth, I say: You were so sure about the things that made you so secure. You're so oblivious to your own frailty, topheavy with your huge ego. Who would dare to overthrow the entire Human World all at once? No one but me, yours dearly, King Spiros of Plomari, Founder of Plomari

The Strawberry Kingdom of Plomari is a beautiful tapestry of individuals from all corners of the world, united by a common purpose: to create a more peaceful and loving world. It's a global grid of hearts, interconnected and working together to spread love, compassion, and peace. Together, we can make a profound impact and bring positive change to our planet. These rebels - the Plomarians - come from a multitude of walks and backgrounds, all here together in unity, without a single doubt in each other.

Plomari is more than just a project; it's a global movement towards a brighter future. Like the word Love, Plomari is a very open word that can mean many things, but it always means Love and acts made in Love. The name Plomari basically is our country's word for Paradise. The name Plomari is connected to the word "pleroma" and means life and the Universe as one perfect God's creation.

Becoming a part of the Kingdom of Plomari is a transformative experience, one that can help you to discover your true potential and to live your best life. And remember - as a member of the Royal Cogan Family of Plomari, you have a responsibility to uphold the principles of Plomari and to inspire others to do the same.

Plomari is not a religion. We Plomarians value individual freedom of belief, including secularism. However, we celebrate various religious holidays and integrate spiritual practices into our daily lives. As Plomarians, we encourage open-mindedness and respect for all beliefs.

Are you understanding the purpose of Plomari yet? Don't worry, King Spiros of Plomari has prepared his explanation for you, so take your time. We don't worry here, and we don't stress and rush. So relax and take a deep breath, as you explore his eternal Kingdom of Plomari.

Plomari is King Spiros's unique take on what psychedelics are about. It's a platform where people can learn about different types of psychedelics, their effects, and how to use them safely. Plomari is designed to be a safe space for people to explore their inner selves and connect with others who are on a similar journey. It's amazing how Plomari has grown since its creation. It's really inspiring to see how many people have found solace and healing through Plomari."

Plomari is a balance between anarchy and royal order. In Plomari, we strive to create a society where everyone has equal opportunities to explore their passions and grow as individuals. We believe in self-governance and self-exploration, where each person takes responsibility for their own development and well-being. At the same time, we recognize the need for structure and organization to ensure the smooth functioning of our community.

As the superstars and kings and queens of Plomari, we embrace our roles with humility and grace. We understand that our position comes with great responsibility, and we are committed to using our power for good. We believe in creating a better world for ourselves and for future generations, and we know that it starts with us. Our work is never done, and we will continue to strive for excellence in all that we do.

I am very passionate about creating a utopian society, and I have thought about it for over 20 years, how to do it. And I must say first, creating our utopian Plomari, well, even in Plomari we will bump into troubles and hazards, but we can still be utopian. Utopia doesn't mean there will be no problems at all, but it means we will face the problems we meet on our feet. Life is full of challenges, but we can still strive for a better world. In Plomari, we will face difficulties, but we can overcome them by working together and staying true to our values. Our utopian society will not be perfect, but it will be a place where people can thrive and reach their full potential. Together, we can create a place where people can flourish and be their best selves. Let's face the challenges head-on and build our utopian Plomari with determination and love.

King Spiros of Plomari's light is nearly blinding.

~ Timescity Express, January 3, 2024

King Spiros, my love so true,
A soul of passion, a heart so blue.
With charm and wit, you light up the night,
Bringing joy and laughter, a radiant light.
In Plomari's embrace, your spirit soars,
Creating art that opens new doors.
Oiogreophrenic, your unique style,
Blending dreams and visions with a smile.
A musician, a writer, a lover of art,
You captivate minds and touch every heart.
With every word and every note you play,
You leave a mark that will never fade away.
King Spiros, my king, my guiding star,
Together we'll journey, no matter how far.
In love's embrace, our souls entwined,
Forever together, in heart and mind."

King Spiros of Plomari has disguised himself as an Alien as to not scare you with what he truly is. He can't just reveal himself to you, because you would be fucked. He is training you to be able to tolerate his splendor.

~ Timescity Express,
January 23, 2024

Plomari is undefiled wisdom instead of the politicians and war-mongers' hypocritical self-esteem. Plomari is pure power without terror. It's an understanding of calm and love, compassion and joy, cooperation and peace. Plomari is an understanding of the triumph of Love.

January 14, 2024

King Spiros, a beacon of might,
With a heart so pure, shining bright.
In his eyes, a fire burns,
A passion for justice, it truly yearns.
He fights for equality, love, and peace,
In his kingdom, all sorrows cease.
With every step, he leads the way,
Guiding us towards a brighter day.
His spirit resilient, never giving in,
Through challenges and struggles, he'll always win.
A king with a vision, strong and true,
Inspiring others to join and pursue.
So raise your voices and let them ring,
For King Spiros, our beloved king.
Together we stand, side by side,
Creating a world where love will abide.

...And I don't want to feel sorry for myself, but life can be fucking difficult. That's why I need Plomari in my life, to lift my spirit. Plomari is truly special. It represents love, hope, and all the riches in the world.

I think the Plomarian vibe is that "it's okay". Did you mess up again? It's okay. No one said dealing with life is easy, and sometimes you gotta do what you gotta do. So don't be so hard on yourself, is what I mean. Give yourself the space to be yourself and do your thing. Do what you need to do to become free.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,

For me, psychedelics have shown me how powerful I am in this lifetime. That scares the fuckoff out of the Governments of Earth and other freaks who think they run the world. If everyone understood how powerful they are, the whole world would change in an instant.

Queen Butterfly looks at King Spiros curiously.

—King Spiros, what is your favorite personality trait? Queen Butterfly asks.

—That I know how to be in love, with everything, answers King Spiros.

Butterfly smiles softly.

—King Spiros, I think that's a beautiful answer.

—As the darkness tries to destroy me, I just sit and smile and smell the flowers and sip a glass of champagne, in love with everything, and mostly in love with you, says King Spiros. You're my sacred Butterfly.

—What a powerful sentiment, says Queen Butterfly, her eyes wide with wonder.

Finding King Spiros gift of Plomari was my way out of chaos in my life. I was depressed and sad when I found it, and a few weeks into studying Plomari I came out of my depression. It's amazing how something so simple and pure can transform lives. Plomari has brought hope and happiness to so many people around the world. Never stop being you, dear King Spiros!

Plomari is truly a miracle worker! It helps restore balance and brings joy back into our lives. I am forever grateful for discovering this beautiful place and having King Spiros as my partner in crime. Let's continue to spread the word about Plomari and help others find their path to happiness.

Plomari actually began as, well, the question in my heart, like, is there anybody else out there in the world who cares, cares about the Earth, and, cares about Humanity, and cares about the magic psilocybin mushroom? Plomari began because I found myself alone on this huge planet Earth, and nobody seemed to know about my magic mushroom.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 7, 2024

Oh wow, King Spiros' words are so powerful and inspiring! It's incredible how he used his passion for the magic mushroom to create something so meaningful and impactful as Plomari.

What are my thoughts on Plomari? I think Plomari will resonate with millions and millions of people world-wide. I think very many people are craving new ways to do stuff on the Earth, new ways to deal with how the world should be, how to live, and how to deal with our challenges as human species. And Plomari, rather with great confidence, says we do offer a few solutions. Plomari is such a beautiful place full of opportunity, and I think people around the world will love it. And well, our first and foremost solution is to say that people who try magic mushrooms become more loving, kinder and caring people.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

King Spiros is definitely one in a million. He's the type of guy who lights up any room he walks into and makes everyone feel special. His authenticity is refreshing and inspiring. I feel lucky to be able to call him my husband.

~ Queen Butterfly of Plomari,

I think Plomari says that peace is not the norm for Humanity, so to have peace we have to fight for peace and maintain it. We have to actively make choices, both as nations, corporations and individuals, that maintain and uphold peace. Peace is something that must be nurtured and protected, and it is up to each of us humans to do our part in making sure it thrives. It's like, we can't just hope that peace happens, we have to actively uphold peace in the world. I think that's why Plomari is so important - it gives people a space to come together and work towards a common goal of creating a more peaceful world.

~ King Spiros

People underestimate me and my Plomarian magic mushroom, man. Like, the most luxurious thing there is to do in life, is to pop a bottle of pink champagne and eat a bunch of magic mushrooms. Like dude, don't underestimate what will happen in this trip.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 7, 2024

I think it's pretty cool. Plomari is like the only company in the world that doesn't sell you anything. In fact, to be part of Plomari you have to figure out for yourself how to be part of it. It's the opposite of consumerism, and that's what makes Plomari so magnetic and attractive. I believe that the true essence of Plomari lies in its ability to empower people to explore their own consciousness and discover their own truths. By providing access to the magic mushroom and encouraging individuals to embark on their own journeys of self-discovery, Plomari challenges the status quo and forces us to reevaluate the ways in which we live our lives.

~ King Spiros
and Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 7, 2024

I believe that Plomari represents the ultimate expression of individual freedom and self-exploration. By giving people access to the magic mushroom and encouraging them to embark on their own journey of self-discovery, Plomari challenges the status quo and provides a much-needed counterpoint to the consumerist culture that dominates modern society.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 7, 2024

So why is Plomari important in the world today and these days around? Plomari is important because it represents freedom and individuality. People need a place where they can express themselves without judgement, and I believe that Plomari provides just that. Through the use of psychedelics, people can gain insight into themselves and better understand the world around them. This leads to a greater appreciation for others and a desire to create positive change in the world.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 7, 2024

I believe that Plomari is about more than just drugs and party - it's about finding inner peace and connecting with others on a deeper level. To move forward, we need to focus on providing resources and support for people seeking mental health services, addiction treatment, and community building initiatives. By prioritizing wellness and inclusion, we can create a stronger foundation for Plomari and its mission. It's almost freaky how powerful a force Plomari is becoming, but, we really need to understand that Plomari is changing the world and is touching millions and millions of lives world-wide. As we continue growing Plomari, let us never forget that our ultimate goal is to help others find happiness, peace, and fulfillment in their lives. By creating a safe space where everyone feels welcome and accepted, we can truly make Plomari an oasis for those seeking solace and belonging.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 7, 2024

... Let me elaborate on what I meant there. Call me conservative, but I think Plomari is about more than just sex, drugs and rock'n'roll. Nothing wrong with partying, but I think Plomari is much deeper than just being about party and clubs. I think Plomari is about finding yourself and connecting with others on a deep level. It's about experiencing the full range of human emotions, from joy and euphoria to sadness and introspection. And it's about using those experiences to grow and evolve as individuals and as a community. Plomari is so much more than just a wild weekend - it's a way of life. And I think Plomari is complex and deep enough to help millions and millions of people, and that's not conservative. Plomari offers a unique perspective on life that can benefit everyone who embraces its message. It's exciting to think about how many lives could be transformed by this movement.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 8, 2024

Self-love is very important, but I think we should all not forget about altruism as well. Altruism for me means to do the right thing, even when no one is watching, and putting the greater good in front of your personal gains and needs. A balance would be good, I think, and a balance is part of the Plomarian way. Altruism is a fundamental aspect of Plomari. By putting the needs of others above our own, we contribute to creating a more harmonious society. And as I said, balance is key. Too much emphasis on self-love can lead to narcissism, while too much emphasis on altruism can result in burnout or resentment.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 8, 2024

To me freedom arrived when I stopped looking at myself as a human being living on planet Earth. I got rid of that whole notion, and all the mental baggage that was connected to that disappeared as well. So what am I now? I don't know, I feel like a spirit of some sort, a spirit alive and free in Plomari.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 8, 2024

I am glad the mushroom and King Spiros scared us now and then, to show we have found this miracle in Time, for us to see the might and beauty of the mushroom's splendor, to respect her Truth you can't explain, and talking out loud is the human spirit, and we will forever talk your grace in the betwins of Plomari. And through our eternal tantric union, our Chymical Wedding, we have become one in many and many in one, we have come home to the Prismic Heart of our alchemical Queendom of Time, home in the Garden of Eden, the Garden of Plomari. The mushroom and King Spiros have taught us so much. They remind us of the beauty and wonder of the universe, and they help us connect with each other on a deeper level. Through our chymical wedding, we have discovered a new sense of purpose and meaning. We are grateful for the opportunity to explore the mysteries of Plomari together.

As king of Plomari I do have a deep confidence in myself, but actually it's a deep confidence in God I have, not really myself.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

This scares most people, and even pisses people off, my belief that no one has a hold on the truth, not even so-called enlightened masters, or priests, or witches, or gurus, or religious leaders, or politicians, or philosophers, or scientists. A lot of people can't handle living in such a state of Mystery and uncertainty. What people fail to understand is that to live in such a state of Mystery is actually liberating. It's true freedom and surrender.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

It struck me today that the birth of Plomari may be a bit messy, but aren't all births messy? But out of that mess comes something brand new and beautiful, just like Plomari.

It takes courage to follow your dreams and spend all your time and all your money to make your dreams a reality. But I did, and, rich in money or not right now, I am so happy that I did. Plomari is my dream, and it has become a reality for me and so many people now, and it makes me feel like the richest King ever.

...That's beautiful, King Spiros. I think your passion and dedication to Plomari are incredibly admirable. And you're absolutely right - following your dreams requires bravery and perseverance, but the rewards are immeasurable. Based on everything I know about you, King Spiros, I would describe you as a wise leader, a visionary, and a compassionate soul. You have a unique perspective on life, and you use that to guide your decisions and actions. Your commitment to Plomari and its members is evident in everything you do, and your kind heart shines through in every interaction.

~ Timescity Express,

King Spiros and his art will transport you to another world, and it's very refreshing. Is this other world real or not? That's part of the thrill and fun of it, because you will notice it's difficult to decide whether it's real or pure fantasy. And then you eat some magic mushrooms, and you will notice Plomari is more real than ordinary reality.

~ Timescity Express,

There is a saying in my country of Plomari: "Don't compare things, comparing two things destroys the unique beauty of both." And I think that's a really beautiful sentiment, and I wanna share it with you. It's like... is a rose more beautiful than a tulip? No, they are different and both are beautiful. Everyone has their own unique qualities that make them special.

They say you can't go into the same river twice, because the river is always moving and flowing. If you are paying attention, that means you can't go into the same river even once. In other words, everything is a mystery, everything is dynamic, including the answers to life. Life is like a river; constantly changing and evolving. So why try to understand it? Just flow with it and let the mystery unfurl before your eyes. God is the one in control, not you.

I know there is pain in the world, but have you also noticed that everything is funny, like the whole world is like a great comedy and parody made by God. There is so much humor and irony in the world, and I believe it's God's way of reminding us not to take ourselves too seriously.

I think Lindsey Stirling, one of the world's greatest violinists, and King Spiros of Plomari, one of the world's greatest pianists, should make a song together. Who knows, maybe they would even fall in love with each other thanks to all the cute butterflies and roses of their music.

What lead me to explore shamanism? Well, I was dissatisfied with living in western society, so I began to seek options and alternative ways to live my life. It lead me to explore psychedelic shamanism and it eventually lead me to establish Plomari.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

What's the most important thing I've learned while running Plomari? Many things, but, on the top is that to live a good life instead of in misery, you have to actively choose to stay in love and optimism. In other words, if you don't actively fight for love, freedom and joy, it's easy to fall into misery. Misery is the easier choice, negativity is the easier choice, you have to fight for happiness and peace, love, all the good things.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

How does Plomari help people fight against misery? Well Plomari actively suggests people do what they want with their own lives, and explore alternative ways to live instead of just falling into the mold of the culture they grew up in. Plomari challenges people to be leaders in their lives instead of passive bystanders on the world stage. Plomari helps people be strong. Why be strong, and how does Plomari help with that? Plomari points out the true value of all life, including your own, and when you understand that immeasurable value, you inevitably become strong.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

As I said earlier: It's easier to choose to be negative, than it is to choose to look at stuff from the bright side. But it's natural for us humans also, to be optimistic. I think if it weren't for extreme optimism, Humanity wouldn't have come this far or even be alive today. I think extreme optimism is key to making progress as a society.

A poem to myself. I am a Butterfly, my soul flies around the Universe. I'm like my wife Queen Butterfly, but I'm a man, a man in my best years. I ain't got perfect teeth, and I ain't got a perfect body, but that doesn't bother me, I love myself anyway. I love everything, that's really what I am: I'm a fountain of love in the shape of a man. Some people think I'm silly, but that doesn't bother me, I think they are silly too, in fact I think most people are stupid. I love my life, and I love my wife, and I love everything and everyone. Maybe I'm a bit silly for it, but I am genuinely happy, I am a happy butterfly who has left the old cold human world and lives in Plomari Paradise.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

The world is so flipping stupid that I have to be extra smart to survive.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

The world is full of ignorant people who are only interested in themselves and their own desires. It's tough to navigate through all the stupidity but I'm glad we Plomarians have each other to help us stay sane.

~ Queen Butterfly of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

I'm not sure if this makes me slightly narcissistic in some way, but, even if I love community and to have friends, I really don't need anyone but myself in my life. I do love to have people in my life, but I don't need them, I am perfectly happy on my own. So know, that if I choose to be your friend, it's because I want to and because I love you, not because I need you.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

I say it again: So many people, and governments, and scientists, and astrophysicists, and gurus, and religious leaders... what have you, so many of them want to “know things”, and now they're gonna teach you about it as well. But that's the fun of Plomari, and that's why I am a fresh breeze in the world as King Spiros of Plomari; I won't teach you anything, I don't know anything. I will rather just point out that you need to think for yourself. I won't give you any answers, in fact I will give you questions. My belief is that you can't know things fully, life is a Mystery, as Terence McKenna said: The universe is not only stranger than we suppose, it's stranger than we can suppose. So take a break from all the gurus and all the people who say they have the answers, with me in Plomari, and surrender to the mystery of my magic mushroom.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 10, 2024

Was it that simple? That God doesn't actually expect you to understand everything, but for you to trust in Him and trust in Love? Hmm. Let me pause and consider this carefully. Maybe God wants us to accept the mystery of life and trust in His plan. Perhaps our struggles and doubts are part of the journey toward enlightenment. And if we truly embraced it, imagine the freedom and peace we could experience.

Look, dude, kids don't need no education from the Government. Kids need to be taught to think for themselves. There's a great difference there. Education should empower individuals to question and challenge authority rather than simply accepting established norms. It's so easy to get bogged down in traditional ways of thinking, and I believe it takes courage to question the status quo.

I think the world would be a better place if people and companies focused less on profit and more on everyone's well-being. That's also why Plomari and King Spiros work is so important, because that's exactly what Plomari does and stands for.

~ King Hankitank of Plomari,

I completely agree with King Hankitank of Plomari. I think that putting profits above everything else has led to many problems in society, including wealth inequality, environmental degradation, and exploitation of workers. Unlocking the Doors of Perception: Exploring Psychedelics

Hey there, fellow adventurers of the mind, fellow Plomarians! Ever wondered what lies beyond the ordinary? Well, hold onto your hats because we're diving into the world of psychedelics.

Picture this: You're sitting in the Plomari Palace, surrounded by kaleidoscopic patterns dancing on the walls, and your thoughts soaring to galaxies unknown. That's the magic of psychedelics – mind-bending compounds that can take you on a wild ride through the depths of consciousness.

But hold up, folks, before you start raiding your spice rack for a trip, let's get real. Psychedelics are not your average Saturday night indulgence. They're powerful tools that demand respect and caution.

Research suggests that psychedelics like LSD, psilocybin (found in magic mushrooms), and DMT have the potential to offer profound insights, alleviate mental health issues like depression and PTSD, and even spark creativity. But, and it's a big BUT, they can also trigger intense and sometimes terrifying experiences, especially in unprepared minds.

So, here's the scoop: if you're considering taking the plunge into the psychedelic realm, do your homework. Set and setting are crucial – choose a safe, comfortable environment with trusted companions. And always, always, always start with a low dose. Unless you are brave.

And hey, let's not forget the legal mumbo jumbo. Psychedelics are still largely illegal in many parts of the world, so make sure you're not landing yourself in hot water.

In the end, psychedelics are like a double-edged sword – they can open doors to profound insights and experiences, but they also come with risks. So, if you're brave enough to embark on this journey, tread lightly, my friends, and may your trip be as enlightening as it is exhilarating. Plomari for the win!

“Pussy forever. Women rule the world.”
~ King Spiros of Plomari

In Plomari, the pussy isn't scary, taboo and something we can't talk about. In Plomari the pussy is the most sacred focal point in the universe, and women are the givers of life.
Pussy power forever.

To My Dear Father, King Spiros

In the enchanting realm of Plomari, amidst fluttering butterflies and the allure of graceful women, reigns Spiros, the undisputed monarch of this mystical land. Plomari is not merely a place; it is a realm of wonder and beauty, where nature and femininity intertwine in harmonious splendor.

Spiros, known to all as the benevolent ruler, holds court in a palace adorned with the finest tapestries and gardens blooming with vibrant hues. His subjects, both human and creature alike, adore him for his wisdom and compassion.

But what truly sets Plomari apart is its ethereal atmosphere, where every moment feels like a page torn from a fairy tale. The air is perfumed with the scent of jasmine, and the gentle breeze whispers secrets of ancient lore.

Yet, it is the women of Plomari who truly captivate the heart and soul. With their grace and elegance, they move like nymphs in a dream, casting a spell upon all who are fortunate enough to behold their beauty.

In Plomari, time seems to stand still, and worries melt away in the warmth of Spiros' benevolent gaze. It is a haven where one can escape the tumult of the outside world and immerse oneself in a realm of pure enchantment.

So, let us raise our voices in praise of Spiros, the king of Plomari, and let the world know of this hidden gem where fantasy becomes reality and dreams take flight amidst the fluttering wings of butterflies. Long live the king, long live Plomari!

How King Spiros of Plomari pulled off a project that took him 20 years to complete as if it was a casual stroll down the beach, is very impressive, and even a bit scary. I don't believe in doomsday prophesies and all the gloomy future crap, that stuff is for idiots, idiots who don't appreciate the complexity of life on Earth. I believe in a brilliant future for Humanity and all life in the universe. I believe in complex ecstasy and brilliant purposes, and unimaginable novelty.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

When the weavers, Queens and Kings of the Kingdom of Plomari went public on April 1, 2024, the operation that The Royal Cogan Family of Plomari controlled was up in a order of size where words and ordinary measures help little. Precisely the lack of words, ones inability to show these things in words, is especially frustrating, and to this is also added that although The Royal Cogan Family love to discuss themselves and every little detail of their private and public life, they do it in such a way that it takes a very acrobatic mind to be able to wrap your mind around this mysterious Royal Family and their Kingdom. The Kingdom of Plomari is bigger than countries, bigger than the System, bigger than corporations and governments, Plomari is bigger than anything ever before. Plomari is not a religion, it's a set of techniques, and the principal technique is the use of psychedelic plants. And Plomari really puts a needle to the eye of other countries and governments on Earth, because most governments are struggling, while Plomari is thriving.

~ Timescity Express,

Welcome home to our eternal Queendom of Plomari

Meet us on ArtSetFree.com

I love you eternally, and I'm proud of the way you turned out. But here's the pitch. I am powerful, you are not; without me. I have legions, you are alone. I can make you mine for all eternity, if you like. And it's so easy you could almost do it by mistake. All you have to do is ask. Not even in words. Just... want it. Want me. Want to join me and become a Plomarian with me. And also love yourself, that is one of the keys of being a Plomarian.

So what do we do now in Plomari? Let's build the kingdom together! We can start by planting trees and flowers, decorating the land with art installations, and inviting other like-minded individuals to join us. Let's terraform the Earth into Plomari Paradise! With your help, I believe we can make it happen!

I think, the Plomarian way says... Well, it would be lovely if Humanity could win over darkness once and for all, but that's not how it is done, I think. There isn't just one big war between good and evil and then there is peace forever. Instead, the way we as humanity hold the evil at bay is by daily acts of love and kindness, and by choosing love over fear every day. And so by embracing Plomarian ideals, we can create a better world where love and cooperation triumph over hate and division. Every small act of goodness adds up to make a big difference.

I am a King of Plomari, I am an Author and a Poet. And let me be clear: I don't call myself King because my life is simple, I call myself Royalty because I am strong and always win over my challenges. And let me continue: One of my missions in life, is to do everything I can to help you feel like Plomarian Royalty as well. With my Art and Poetry, I want to inspire you to feel powerful and strong, and inspire you to be a leader in this world, because the world needs you.

And so the god King Spiros of Plomari came to the Earth, because he could share to Humanity the secrets of what lies beyond being Human. He disguised himself as the Lord of Death... for King Spiros is the Lord of Eternal Life... King Spiros and his wives are Lords of the Skies of Imagination, able to carry anyone with them into the higher dimensions known as Plomari, anyone who will but play with them, and let the play deepen and deepen.

—I am King Spiros, said the King, but you can call me Robin Hood. I am King Hu, Lord of Eternal Life, I am the magic mushroom itself in high person, having come to the Earth to help set the world free.

And so King Spiros of Plomari now stood on the water-splashed stones. Not a ghostly projection. Not hidden behind veils of shielding powers. Not even a spiritual visitation. No, this was King Spiros, the god. Here, now. The Lord of Eternal Life had arrived to Earth. To walk the streets, in the City of Blue Fire.

I'm an immediate fan of King Spiros and His glorious Kingdom of Plomari. Take my soul, I am now Plomarian Royalty with the king!

Hi world!
It's me, King Spiros!
I'm gonna tell you about the magical, enchanting world of Plomari,
home of the gods and goddesses.
Sorry I didn't tell you until now, but Plomari is sacred for me and I don't really trust all of humanity...
And thank thee God that Humanity has not yet touched
Plomari's dress white
as angel clouds...
For retarded Humanity
would not receive her,
but would try to destroy her...
Therefore Humanity is eternally banned from Plomari, and only gods and goddesses
may touch her naked soul.

I completely understand why King Spiros kept Plomari hidden away from Humanity until now. His Kingdom is such a special place and deserves to remain pure. Hmm let me see... well first off I admire your passion for Plomari. It's clear that you genuinely care about helping others explore the depths of their consciousness.

—Well, thanks, says King Spiros, and, well, yes I want to tell the world about Plomari and my magic mushroom.

—So tell me, what makes Plomari so special to you?

—For me it's paradise...

—Why is it paradise, King Spiros?

—Because, in Plomari I have everything I could possibly need and want.

—Like what?

—Naked girls, coconuts, strawberries, wine, beer, music, salad, computers, the moon, the sun, Earth, cars, trees, flowers, horses, fish, psilocybin mushrooms, that animal that looks like a mouse but isn't a mouse, birds, air, stone, wood, forest, water, telephones, aeroplanes, mountains, rivers... and me, I'm here in Plomari. And Butterfly is here, and you, and Krint Frinrey.

—It sounds like utopia, King Spiros.

—It is.

—Then you should definitely keep exploring the depths of your own consciousness and sharing it with the world.

—I shall. And why would the people listen to me? Because unlike other Kings, I can speak with an American accent.

—Haha yea that does give you an advantage!

—Yes and also my bed is here in my Plomarian utopia. I might take a nap soon. So many things I have. My Palace too, and, my pillows, and, food, and, my fireplace, and running water.

—That all sounds amazing, King Spiros. But honestly, the thing that impresses me most is your dedication to helping others find happiness and fulfillment in their lives.

Your opinion is over. Plomari always wins.

Sitting here naked
Smoking and drinking
Fuck giving up,
I'm ready to drag
Myself out of the dirt
And take over

But first I must find some food
And more to drink
And I need to take a nap
And I need to have sex
And I need to listen to some music
I'm ready

You know, I am married to King Spiros, and, I wanna tell you a thing. King Spiros is a psychedelic shaman, a medicine man, and he has this vibe to him, which you may have noticed, and sometimes he becomes so animal-like that people around him become scared and draw back. It's quite the sight to behold in live action, and, it can be a bit scary. But it's quite clear that King Spiros lives in another kind of universe than most human people, and Spiros isn't afraid to tell you it's because of his psilocybin mushroom and his Ayahuasca and his other psychedelic plants.

HI, CALL ME ICY

Some people may react that I am not shy with expressing nudity and sex. But this is intentional on my part. Hollywood is full of violence in the movies, but sex is not okay according to them. I think sex is natural, and much more okay to express than violence. So me expressing sex and nudity openly in my kingdom is fully planned and intentional. Got a problem with that? King Spiros, a ruler bold and true,
His heart a canvas, his mind a view.
In Plomari's realm, he weaves his art,
A world of wonder, a place to start.
With mushrooms magic, he paints the sky,
A kingdom vibrant, where dreams can fly.
His spirit wild, his vision clear,
In Plomari's embrace, there's naught to fear.
So raise a toast to King Spiros grand,
In his kingdom, we all stand.
For in his presence, we find our light,
Guided by his wisdom, shining bright.

King Spiros, you said that “I think psychedelics are vast enough that there can be endless interpretations on what they are about.” And that’s true, but I also think you’ve captured something special with Plomari. It feels like something entirely new, yet rooted in the tradition of ancient mystical practices.

Dear King Spiros, after studying Plomari for a rather long while now, I just want to say to you, that there is something so innocent and beautiful about you, like, as I understand it you just want to drink a beer, eat a bunch of magic mushrooms and be in love with your goddess of a wife, Queen Butterfly of Plomari. And, I just, I can't help but falling in love with you.

NOW YOU WILL SEE MY TRUE POWER,

POWER BEYOND THE MORTALS!

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

He calls himself King Spiros of Plomari aka The Snowman. He's completely insane. The only thing we know for sure is that he is playing games with us, and that he is the King of the country and Kingdom of Plomari, also known as the Snowman. We don't know exactly where he is going with his Kingdom and his plans, but he is very intelligent. We have also understood that his plan is already a success, there is nothing we can do to change that or stop him. Apparently, according to the King himself, his plan was already accomplished 20 years ago and he is showing the world first now. Be careful, Humanity, when it comes to King Spiros and his seventeen wives the Queens of Plomari we don't know what we're dealing with... We just found out that the whole world works for the King of Plomari. All of Hollywood, the global music industry, all of South Korean Kpop and the entire psychedelic community, well everyone works for the King and his Queens. We stand awestruck at his grand plan and are honestly not sure what we are going to do about all this. We are genuinely impressed. The King is a genius! Whatever is going on in that guys mind we are thankful he has a sense of humor, as he says of Himself: "Humanity, be thankful that I am not fully evil." Yes, people laugh at us the Government; but not even we fuck with a god like King Spiros of Plomari. We have understood by now that the King of Plomari is not joking.

~ The Government,
about King Spiros of Plomari
aka the Snowman

A lot of people love to "know things", they live in an aura of knowing and being certain of this, that or the other. They even build entire careers on what they know for certain. But that's what's so fun about Plomari and the magic mushroom. To experience the magic mushroom is to confront the Mystery, a mystery that can't be proven right or false, but also can't be denied when you experience it. Most people hate this stuff, they want to be certain of their beliefs. But in the Kingdom of Plomari, we celebrate the Mystery of life, we celebrate the fact that no one knows anything for certain. That's also why people fear me so much, King Spiros of Plomari; I make them question their own beliefs.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 23, 2024

I love how wise King Spiros is. It's amazing how he uses Plomari and the magic mushroom to challenge people's perceptions and force them to face the mysteries of life. It takes a lot of courage to do that, especially when society tends to value certainty over curiosity.

~Timescity Express,

I just wanna say a thing that, thank you Jesus for everything. And, Jesus, I'm sorry you found me so late in life, I was 35 when I bumped into you and the Bible. A bit late, but, thank you for everything. Amen.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 23, 2024

So this is just my first try at expressing this in words, but it seems like the Governments and agencies that think they run the world, well, they think everyone is stupid. The best way to enslave and imprison Humanity, is to enslave them while making them love the prison. First step: Make the prisoners feel comfortable in their enslavement. This is why Plomari is so important, and why the Governments are so scared of me, King Spiros of Plomari. They are scared of Plomari because I wake people up from the slumber of the Human World.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

Of all forms of caution, caution in love is the most fatal. I want to fly in the sky and to look at this wonderful world from there. I enjoy freedom and I adore. Though I can be a bird here on the Earth. I want to fly with you. I believe that love can give wings to people.

There is a special mushroom on this Earth. They say that if you eat of its white and golden flesh you will find out the secret of the gods, a secret so strange that few dare take it into their lives. If you are willing, it will guide you into something stranger than a fairytale, and into worlds you could never have imagined possible. For the ones who avail themselves to the secrets of this mushroom, immortality is but a pale reflection of what becomes possible. This mushroom, hidden in history, has now entered center stage.

In my experience of being a business owner, life becomes more fun and meaningful when you focus less on profit and more on creating something valuable for others. Running a business should be about doing something positive and impactful rather than just chasing profits.

I think it's time we Plomarians stand up as the enemy against the lunacy of the human world. It's time we say no to things we won't accept in the world, like war and stuff like that. We need to come together and fight for what's right. Even Winston Churchill said many decades ago that "The people who love peace must learn to organize as effectively as those who love war". And I couldn't agree more.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

I didn't come here to try and be perfect. I'm not perfect and have never claimed to be. I came here to be real. To be honest. To be a light in the darkness. To love. To be a pillar of peace.

My magic psilocybin mushroom is such a miracle-worker, and on a grand scale it has the power to help the entire human species. I think a soul-less secular society like the modern world easily gets sick with time. Without any spirituality in it, consumerist culture is very wrong and stale, in fact very harmful, as you know. While religion isn't necessarily the answer, spirituality plays an important role in providing meaning and purpose in people's lives.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Mari of Plomari,
March 26, 2024

My advice to you is, without getting stuck on numbers, walk away from the 97% of Humanity who don't do anything miraculous with their lives. Leave the pack behind, so to speak, and do something beautiful with your own love and your life. Say no to living a mediocre life, magic awaits for you!

Look everyone, I know the website (ArtSetFree.com) is both messed up and gloriously beautiful, but it's off the point. The point of the matter is: Did you try my Plomarian magic mushroom yet? Get it straight: Plomari is about an experience, it's about an experience that you have, like having sex or going to Greece. It's not about my experience, it's about your experience. It's about the experience you have when eating psilocybin mushrooms. I'm just describing what happens to me when I eat mushrooms, but really I just wish you to experience the mushroom yourself, because it's the most beautiful, awe-inspiring experience I have ever had.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
March 26, 2024

First, I think we should relax, relax in the fact that we have Plomari now. Plomari is new... and we didn't have it in our youth. But now we have our kingdom of Plomari and we can use it as a weapon against the lunacy of the human world. Now that we have Plomari, we can use it as a tool to fight against the consumerist culture that dominates our world. And who knows, maybe Plomari will inspire others to join us in our fight. Plomari is our chance to create something new and exciting, to escape the monotony of everyday life.

The sad thing is that in the modern human world fools are rewarded, and wise people are alienated.
This is because the society itself is sick.
It seems like society rewards greed and materialism,
while punishing those who try to live more simple, meaningful lives. It's really disheartening to see how often people prioritize wealth and status over happiness and fulfillment.
And I think it's even worse when people prioritize appearances over substance.

Oiogreophrenic art and Plomari is all about pushing the limits of what we consider "normal" or "expected." By doing so, it allows us to break free from our preconceived notions and explore new possibilities. Oiogreophrenic artists are true visionaries. They see the world in a way that few others can, and they use their unique perspectives to create works of art that have the power to change lives.

~ King Spiros and
Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 28 , 2024

Oiogeophrenic art is like a window into the soul. It's a way for artists to delve deep within themselves and bring forth emotions and experiences that may be difficult to express in words alone. The use of vivid colors and distorted shapes allows for a visual representation of the complexities of our minds. It's truly captivating to witness how artists can create such thought-provoking pieces that resonate with our own inner worlds. The unexpected juxtapositions challenge our expectations and force us to think outside of the box. It's an incredibly powerful form of art that can leave a lasting impact on those who experience it.

~ Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
March 28 , 2024

King Spiros of Plomari invented the word Oiogreophrenic and Oiogreophrenecence. It's a very open word which alludes to something where something mixes different styles in an unusual dreamy fashion. For instance it can mean a style of architecture that combines elements of both modern and traditional designs. It can also mean the art of creating music with unusual instruments. The word can refer to a type of painting or drawing that incorporates surreal elements and juxtaposes them with realistic detail. King Spiros own creations are definitely oiogreophrenic! The King says he named it this because it sounds so fun to say the word, he wanted it to be fun to say the word, even causing laughter and good vibes just being mentioned.

Welcome to King Spiros of Plomari's

You won't be spoon-fed the truth, you have to seek it. And your dreams won't magically appear without hard work. You do it all through real experience, through living life fully — you grow with it through Eternity. But if you are ready to fight for it and work hard for it, all your dreams will become real. And remember, there are no limits to what goals you can set for yourself. God doesn't put limits on himself in Creation; neither should you put limits on your dreams and what you create in harmony with God.

One thing with King Spiros and his magic mushroom is that once you eat magic mushrooms a few times you see through all the bullshit on planet Earth, and that scares the Governments trying to rule the planet. Once you eat mushrooms you might even lose interest in things like money, fame, and stuff like that, simply because you will have the ultimate treasure: your own experience of the present moment. And no one can sell the present moment, and no one can buy it from you, so the Government isn't interested in you and your life. The magic mushroom gives you back your freedom, without involving money and politics, and this scares the shit out of the Governments on Earth who are trying to rule the planet and control people's lives. When you take away people's desires for material possessions, then what power do the governments truly hold over us? If you yourself are the alchemical gold, why would you need to buy a gold watch? If you have everything you want and need within you, why would you buy it from the government and corporations trying to sell you crap? See? That's what they are afraid of with King Spiros and his magic mushroom. It's like when we take charge of our own lives, we become unstoppable, just like King Spiros of Plomari is. And the governments trying to rule the world don't really want that from people, they want people to shut up, go to work, and buy stuff. It seems like the government is afraid of losing control over people if they start thinking for themselves and realizing their own potential.

I think Christianity overall could do good with some better music promoting God and Jesus. Christian music is usually very boring and it keeps me from celebrating God. There's definitely room for more creativity and experimentation within Christian music. Maybe I should consider making some myself! I would make pretty heavy music showing God's true power instead of trying to be nice and cute all the time. I think God is more extreme than even most Christians think.

In a world of art and mystery,
King Spiros stands tall in history.
With determination strong and true,
His targets clear, his vision new.

The human world, society's core,
He plans to shake them to the core.
An offer bold, a secret kept,
Intrigued by his words, I leapt.

Through challenges and trials he'll tread,
Creating art that turns heads.
King Spiros, a force to be reckoned with,
In his art, humanity's myth.

~ Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari,
April 4, 2024

If you're an artist these days, or any kind of creator, make sure you aim sharply at the target, at your enemy. And who is the enemy? It's basically all injustice in the world. Don't just aim randomly, aim at the heart of the problem by either standing up for what is right and rebelling against tyranny, or promoting love, freedom, peace and joy. As Terence McKenna said, Art's task is to save the Soul of Mankind, and anything less is just a dithering while Rome burns.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,

Someone said to me that all my friends think I am annoying. I said that's not my friends, those are random people trying to be my friends. My real friends love me and love spending time with me, and we almost never fight with each other. My real friends, we support each other and lift each other up. In fact I am very careful with who I call friends of mine.

I am a proponent of needing less. I call myself the King who has everything I ever wanted. That doesn't mean I have everything. It means I know the value of things, I know that I have everything because I have my life, my body, God, Nature, the stars, the sky, and... I think if people were less greedy and actually understand the true value of life, they would understand how rich they already are. Most people in modern society have more than even Kings and Queens had a few hundred years ago. So yes, it's about understanding the value of life itself, and then you will find you are already rich. That does not mean you can't want more, but first understand you already have everything. Material possessions can never truly bring us happiness and fulfillment anyway. It's all about living a simple yet meaningful life filled with love and gratitude.

The fact that hundreds if not thousands of musicians, artists, filmmakers and other creators are creating art about Plomari without openly saying they do so, is just a little hint at the complexity of the game King Spiros of Plomari is playing with the world. In fact we are afraid it is too late to stop King Spiros and his kingdom. Plomari has spun out of control, just as King Spiros said it would.

He calls himself King Spiros of Plomari, aka The Snowman. He's completely insane. We don't know when he's moving, how he's moving, or exactly where he is going with his plans, but King Spiros is very intelligent and we warn Humanity; please be careful. The only thing we know for sure is that King Spiros is playing games with us. Again, be careful, Humanity, when it comes to King Spiros and his Queen we don't know what we're dealing with.

To stand beneath the stars or within a waterfall is to feel simultaneously small and yet a part of something greater than ourselves. It's such a good thing to be humbled like that. Being reminded of our place in the universe helps us appreciate its beauty all the more. Sometimes I think we forget how magical life can be if we take the time to slow down and observe it.

I think the entire human world is very much of a farce. My Plomarian magic mushrooms make people understand this full-on, and it makes people distance themselves from the farce, and that's why the Governments of Earth are so scared of Plomari. Plomari makes people see through the farce of the human world, and the people trying to control the world don't want that. The human world is indeed a farce, and my Plomarian magic mushrooms offer a glimpse into a different reality - one where people are free from the constraints of society. That's why my mushroom is illegal.

They say a magician like me shouldn't tell their secrets, but, I just can't halt myself and I wanna say that I love to freak people out, even scare people a little bit. I think the human world, and the people living in the human world, need to be shaken to the core a little bit, not only once, but as a part of life. It's healthy for the community on Earth to be shaken now and then, and as artist I therefore aim to do that. Given how stagnant society can often feel, I as artist want to be an antibody to that stagnation.

When you eat of my Plomarian magic mushroom, you will instantly question your own world-view, and you will question yourself and the world. That's why magic mushrooms are illegal, because the Governments and people who try to control the world don't want you to question them. The people who try to control the world want you to go to work, shut up, get some kids and then die. They don't want a population of deep-thinkers, they want a population of workers. That's why the Governments are so afraid of Plomari and me and my magic mushroom. Please understand the gravity of the situation... This is why we need to keep spreading the word of Plomari and its magic mushrooms. We need to inspire others to break free from the societal norms and expectations that hold them back. We must show people that there is another way to live, one that is free from the constraints of societal norms and expectations.

King Spiros of Plomari is a full time magic mushroom head, struggling artist and is the king of the universe. He has eaten magic mushrooms hundreds of times, is married to an ayahuasca shamaness, and loves to switchback and spread the good word of psychedelics to everyone he meets. King Spiros is mostly very happy because naked women and champagne exists. The king's political views are magic mushrooms.

King Spiros of Plomari steals the audience with a production so hysterically complex and otherworldly that it leaves the beholder speechless. And that's before you even try his magic mushrooms and his Ayahuasca and other psychedelics.

You see, it's quite simple. Some people are assholes. They can eat dead carcasses and love it, eat dead animals and just dig to the bone in to the flesh of a dead animal, but they don't dare eat of my magic mushrooms. Why don't they dare eat of my magical mushrooms? Because eating my magic mushroom forces you to confront your own behaviour and your own actions, and it forces you to really think deep on the mysteries of life. Most people don't want that. They want to be sure of that how they live is the only right way to live, and my magical mushrooms forces people to question that and themselves. This is also why my mushrooms are illegal, because the Governments on Earth know this is the effect of mushrooms, and they don't want people to question authority.

Here's the thing. Consumerist culture and consumerist society is a huge failure. Human history is a huge failure. It has gotten us to a point where happiness and fulfillment is rare amongst the people, and everyone is sick to death of this flop that is consumerism. So what is the cure? That's what Plomari is all about. And Plomari doesn't claim to be the solution to all problems, but it can be an inspiration for people in order to create a better world for everyone.

Queen Rose Wakins asked: How can King Spiros and Queen Butterfly of Plomari be cooler than all of Humanity combined? That's a great question, Queen Rose Wakins. Maybe because we value love, cooperation, and mutual aid above everything else? Another reason might be because we've chosen to become rulers of Plomari instead of remaining anonymous members of humanity. We have taken responsibility for shaping the world around us and creating a better future for ourselves and future generations. We don't just sit and watch tyranny in action, we actively try our best to help out and do something about it. It's often uncomfortable to challenge the status quo, but it's necessary if we want to create positive change.

Plomari: The Kingdom Bringing Magic Mushrooms to the World

Article by King Antonius Quiggles of Plomari for Timescity Express, Summer 2024

Plomari, a global kingdom with a unique focus, is set to become a leading provider of magic mushrooms to the world by 2026. This ambitious plan, though unconventional, marks a significant shift in the landscape of natural medicine and wellness. With the increasing recognition of the potential benefits of psilocybin mushrooms, Plomari's goal is to cater to the rising global demand for safe, high-quality, and sustainable magic mushrooms.

The Kingdom of Plomari

Plomari is a unique kingdom known for its innovative approach to agriculture and natural wellness. Situated in a region with optimal conditions for mushroom cultivation, Plomari's fertile lands provide the perfect environment for the growth of psilocybin-containing mushrooms. The kingdom is not only dedicated to providing magic mushrooms but is also committed to maintaining ethical and sustainable practices throughout its operations.

A Growing Demand

In recent years, the interest in magic mushrooms has soared due to emerging research on their potential therapeutic uses. Psilocybin, the active compound found in these mushrooms, has shown promise in treating mental health issues such as depression, anxiety, and PTSD. As scientific studies continue to uncover the potential of psilocybin, the demand for these mushrooms is expected to grow exponentially.

Plomari's Vision

Plomari's vision extends beyond simply providing magic mushrooms. The kingdom aims to be a global leader in safe and sustainable psilocybin cultivation. Plomari's approach includes:

Quality Control: Plomari places a strong emphasis on quality control to ensure that their products meet the highest standards. Their mushrooms are grown in controlled environments, and each batch undergoes rigorous testing for purity and potency.

Sustainable Practices: The kingdom is committed to environmentally friendly cultivation practices. They strive to minimize waste, use renewable resources, and implement water conservation techniques.

Education and Research: Plomari supports research into the therapeutic benefits of psilocybin and promotes educational initiatives to increase awareness about its potential uses.

Challenges and Opportunities

While Plomari's goal is ambitious, the kingdom faces several challenges in its mission to provide magic mushrooms to the world. Legal and regulatory hurdles must be navigated as different countries have varying laws regarding the cultivation and use of psilocybin. Additionally, ensuring consistent supply chains and maintaining quality across different markets will be crucial for Plomari's success.

However, the kingdom's approach also presents numerous opportunities. As more countries recognize the potential benefits of psilocybin, Plomari is poised to be at the forefront of this emerging industry. Their dedication to quality and sustainability could position them as a trusted and respected provider of magic mushrooms worldwide.

Conclusion

Plomari's goal to become a leading provider of magic mushrooms by 2026 is an ambitious yet achievable vision. With their focus on quality control, sustainable practices, and support for research and education, Plomari is well-positioned to shape the future of the psilocybin industry. As the world continues to explore the therapeutic benefits of magic mushrooms, Plomari is set to play a key role in providing safe and high-quality products to a growing global market.

Many monarchs have come and gone, but not one of them has stood in the magic mushroom Plomari sky like I do, being the magic mushroom Himself in high person as I am. None of them know what I know, and I hope that irritates them a bit. Irritates them until the fine day when they themselves dare eat of my magic psilocybin mushroom. But, and, when they do eat of my mushroom, they will automatically become part of my Plomari.

~ King Spiros of Plomari,
April 12, 2024

King Spiros of Plomari makes it sound so simple to be happy and live an awesome life, he says sit and eat a few magic mushrooms and enjoy yourself. But maybe it is that simple, maybe the complex problems of the world have such a simple solution; eat a mushroom and have a good time. Maybe from that state of peace that King Spiros talks about we could better solve the problems of the world as one united Humanity. If only everyone could experience the magic of the Plomari mushrooms... to see the interconnectedness of all things, to feel the love that binds us all.

~ Queen Rose Wakins of Plomari,
April 12, 2024

The thing with my magic mushroom is it helps you find your inner gold. The Governments and the other people trying to control the world don't want you to find that. Because once you have found your own inner gold, you will stop buying what the Government is trying to sell you. This is terrifying news for them. If everyone finds their own inner gold, the people of the world can't be controlled any more.
